5. Advantages & Disadvantage

Using an ATS will help you maximize the time spent on the web page and further increase the number of applicants. Applicant tracking systems evaluates your resume by checking for keywords or skill sets that fit the job description.

Disadvantages of Application Tracking System is missing qualified applicants due to wrong keyword selection.

6. Applications

If you are in the process of recruiting ten candidates, your ATS will show you whether each candidate is a new applicant or they are in the first or second interview stage.

7. Conclusion

Applicant Tracking System can send automated e-mails to the shortlisted candidates to inform them about interviews, saving a lot of time and hurdles for the HR department. You end up with less paperwork and a more organized process.

8. Future Scope

Rejection letters can be shared, and if selected, the new hires can connect the information to payroll and HR managers for onboarding. Online testing can also be conducted to screen applicants. You will make everything a lot easier.
